To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, preſented to her Majeſty by Sir David Nairne.

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Repreſentatives of the Royal Boroughs in the preſent Convention, do moſt humbly Repreſent, That this being the firſt time we could meet together ſince the laſt happy Deliverance of this part of Your Majeſty's Kingdom of Great Britain from the threaten'd Invaſion, we thought our ſelves bound in all Duty to concur with your Majeſty's other faithful Subjects, in expreſſing our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of that Wicked Deſign of the French King to invade your Dominions: We do moſt heartily Congratulate the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Navy and Arms, ſo ſpeedily and ſeaſonably provided to defeat that horrid Enterprize: We do likewiſe, in all humble Duty, give your Majeſty full Aſſurance, that we ſhall never be wanting to maintain and defend your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, and Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line, againſt all Attempts of the Pretender and his Adherents: And that the divine Protection may be always towards your ſacred Perſon and Government; that your Counſels and Arms may be ever attended with Succeſs; and that, by the Bleſſing of God, your Life and Reign may be long and proſperous, is and ſhall be the conſtant Prayer of, &c.

The three following Addreſſes were tranſmitted from Scotland by the Right Hon. the Earl of Seafield, and preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord High Treaſurer.

All which Addreſſes her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

Berne, June 2. N. S. Letters from Turin of the 23d of the laſt Month ſay, That Major-General Stanhope ſet Sail from Savona on the 18th for Barcelona with ſo fair a Wind, that 'twas not doubted but he was ſafely arriv'd there. On the 19th her Majeſty's Ship the Centurion arriv'd at Genoa from Barcelona with Letters of the 4th of the laſt Month, by which there was advice, that in a Council of War held upon the Arrival of Marſhal Staremberg and Monſieur Belcaſtel, it had been reſolv'd to take the Field on the 14th of the ſame Month. We hear from Genoa, that Admiral Leake was every Day expected there, and that all things were in a readineſs for the Embarkation as ſoon as he ſhall arrive.

Copenhagen, June 5. N. S. The Pruſſian Secretary has receiv'd Orders to declare at this Court, That the King his Maſter had no Intention of offering any Prejudice to the Rights of the Nobility, by ſending his Troops into the Dutchy of Mecklenburg, but only to ſecure to himſelf his Right of Succeſſion to that Dutchy. The King of Denmark has lately receiv'd two Letters from the King of Pruſſia; one whereof notify'd his Pruſſian Majeſty's having accepted the Title and Arms of Duke of Mecklenburg, the other was a Signification of the Death of his Grandſon. There is a Report here, That the Swedes were fitting out ſeveral Ships of War at Carelſcroon and Gottenburg.

Berlin, June 5. N. S. The Prince and Princeſs Royal have waited ſome Days for the Arrival of the Electreſs of Hanover here; but there being now no expectation of that Viſit, the Prince's Court is gone to Weſterhauſen, where they will reſide for a Seaſon. Letters from Carlsbadt inform us, that the King has began to Drink thoſe Waters; and, tis ſuppos'd, the Benefit which he already receives from them, will incline his Majeſty to ſtay longer there than he at firſt intended. Advices from the King of Sweden's Quarters at Kadoskrewitz of the 9th of the laſt Month ſay, that his Swediſh Majeſty had charg'd a Courier from the Czar to tell his Maſter, that he yet continu'd in the Reſolution of coming into Muſcovy. They write from Warſaw of the 29th paſt, that the Grand General of the Crown having conducted his Lady to Skoln upon the Frontiers of Hungary, where ſhe is to have a Conference with Prince Ragotzki, was return'd to Jaroſlow, from whence he will go directly to Visko, the place appointed for the general Rendezvous of the Crown Army, which is to be aſſembled there before the end of this Month. In the mean time they daily expect in that City the Biſhop and Palatine of Culm from King Staniſlaus, and the Palatines of Mazure and Lublin from the General of the Crown Army, to Treat of an Accommodation. 'Tis ſaid, the latter, in order to facilitate this Affair, has agreed to a Ceſſation of Arms for a Month with the Palatine of Kiow, the Chief Commander of the Troops which are in the Intereſts of King Staniſlaus.

From the Camp at Terbank, June 11. N. S. On Friday the 8th Inſtant his Grace the Duke of Marlborough reviewed the Right of the Foot of the firſt Line, conſiſting of all the Britiſh, and part of the Hanover Foot, and was extreamly well ſatisfied with the condition they appear'd in, the reſpective Bodies being very compleat, as well in number, as in Cloathing and Accoutrements. His Grace the Duke of Marlborough had the like Satisfaction in reviewing the next Day the reſt of the Foot of the firſt Line, and this Day the Left Wing of the Horſe of the ſame Line. On Saturday Baron Daudignie's Regiment of Spaniſh Dragoons march'd towards Ghent, where they will join the three Engliſh Battalions of Foot lately landed, which together with ſome others to be drawn out of our Garriſons are to form a Body of Troops under the Command of Major-General Murray, to obſerve any Motions the Enemy may make in Flanders. Our Army, and that of the Enemy, continue ſtill in their former Camps.

Hague, June 12. N. S. Yeſterday was the firſt Day the Grand Penſioner appear'd in the Aſſembly of the States ſince his late Indiſpoſition. The laſt Letters from France confirm the Account we lately had, that Admiral Leake had taken the greater Part of an hundred Tartans laden with Corn and Ammunition for the Army commanded by the Duke of Orleans; thoſe Veſſels were bound from Ceta to Peniſcola, on the Coaſt of the Kingdom of Valencia. They write from Italy, that her Catholick Majeſty arriv'd at Breſcia on the 26th of the laſt Month, and was expected at Milan on the 31ſt. 'Tis advis'd from Frankfort, that his Electoral Highneſs of Hanover arriv'd there on the 7th Inſtant, but did not deſign to place himſelf at the Head of the Army 'till he had a Conference with Prince Eugene and the Elector of Mayence, who were expected at Frankfort the next Day. 'Tis ſaid Prince Eugene will be at Maſtricht the next Week.

Falmouth, May 31. On the 29th in the Evening ſail'd the Prince Packet-boat, Captain Chinhall Commander, with one Mail for Lisbon.
